Profile

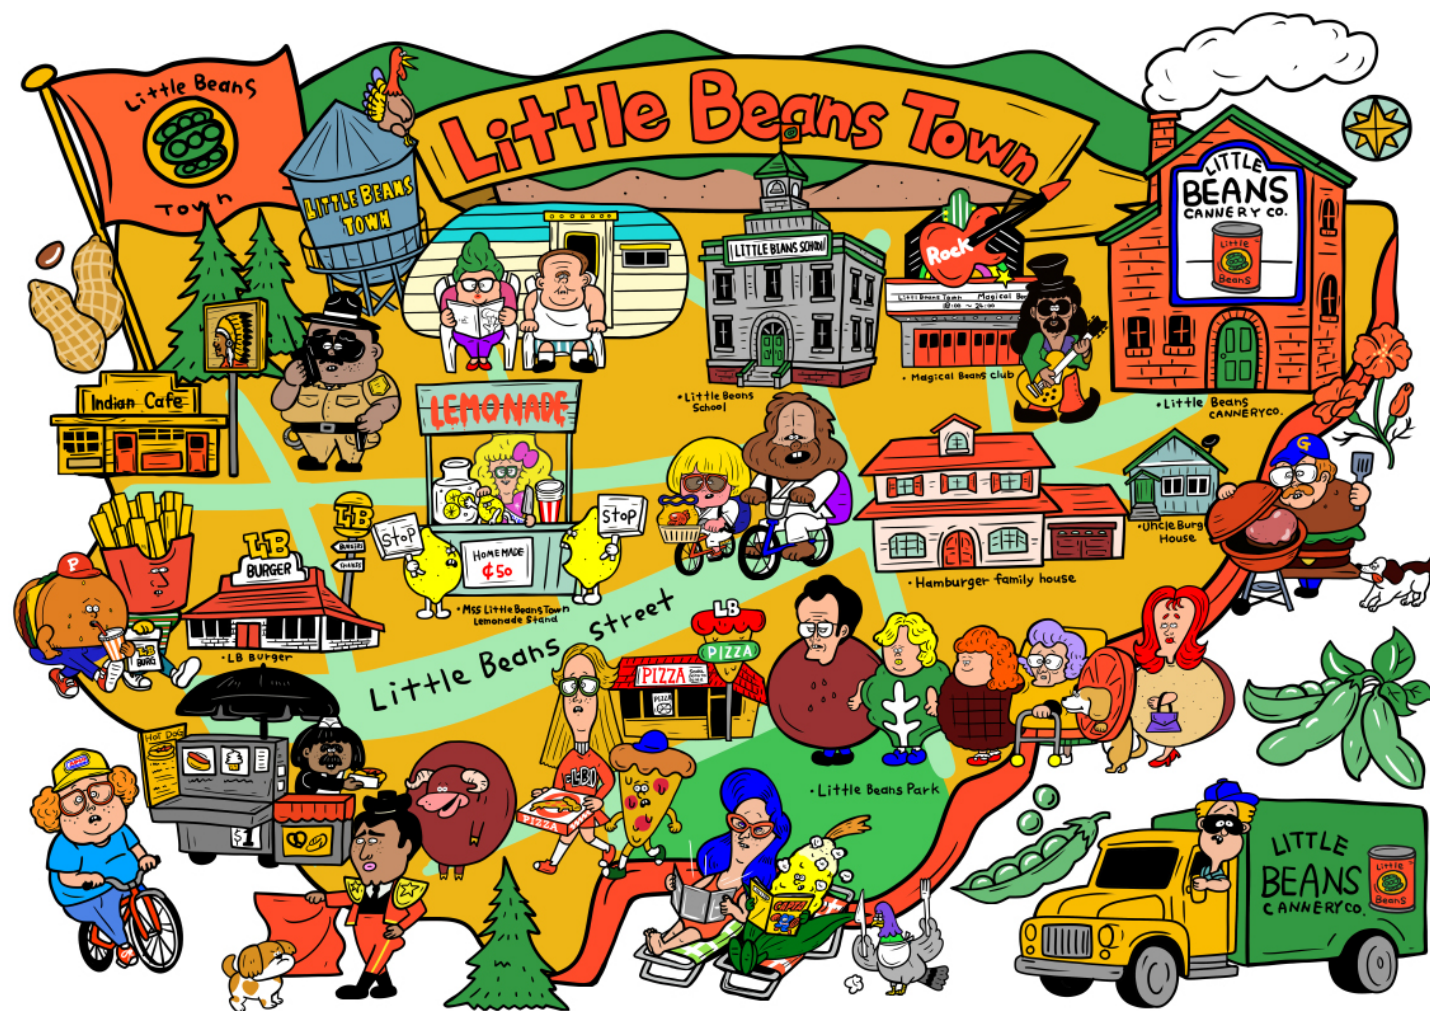

Urata Spancall, who was born and raised in Osaka in 1977 graduated from Kyoto Seika University in Visual Design in 1999.

"When I was a child, I was shocked to see American movies. In my fantasy and creation, I turned ordinary people to colorful and in a cool way." Urata grew up enjoying American movies in the 80s, and all the characters she created are American friends she imagined.

As an illustrator, she creates a wide range of canvases and animations, In addition to creating illustrations for magazines, merchandise and packaging illustrations, making promotional videos, and participating in exhibitions as an artist. Combining cute and fun, pop and American elements, the theme is created to make the audience resonate and laugh. Urata creates by using numbers, paint and clay. She also received the Audience Award at UNKNOWN ASIA 2021.

Little Beans Town

Little Beans Town is a tiny, uncharted town in the American suburbs, home to a cast of slightly clumsy but lovable inhabitants, including UNCLE BURGER, a man who can't get his Halloween costume off . The town's merchandise includes figures, comics, canvas art, and more.

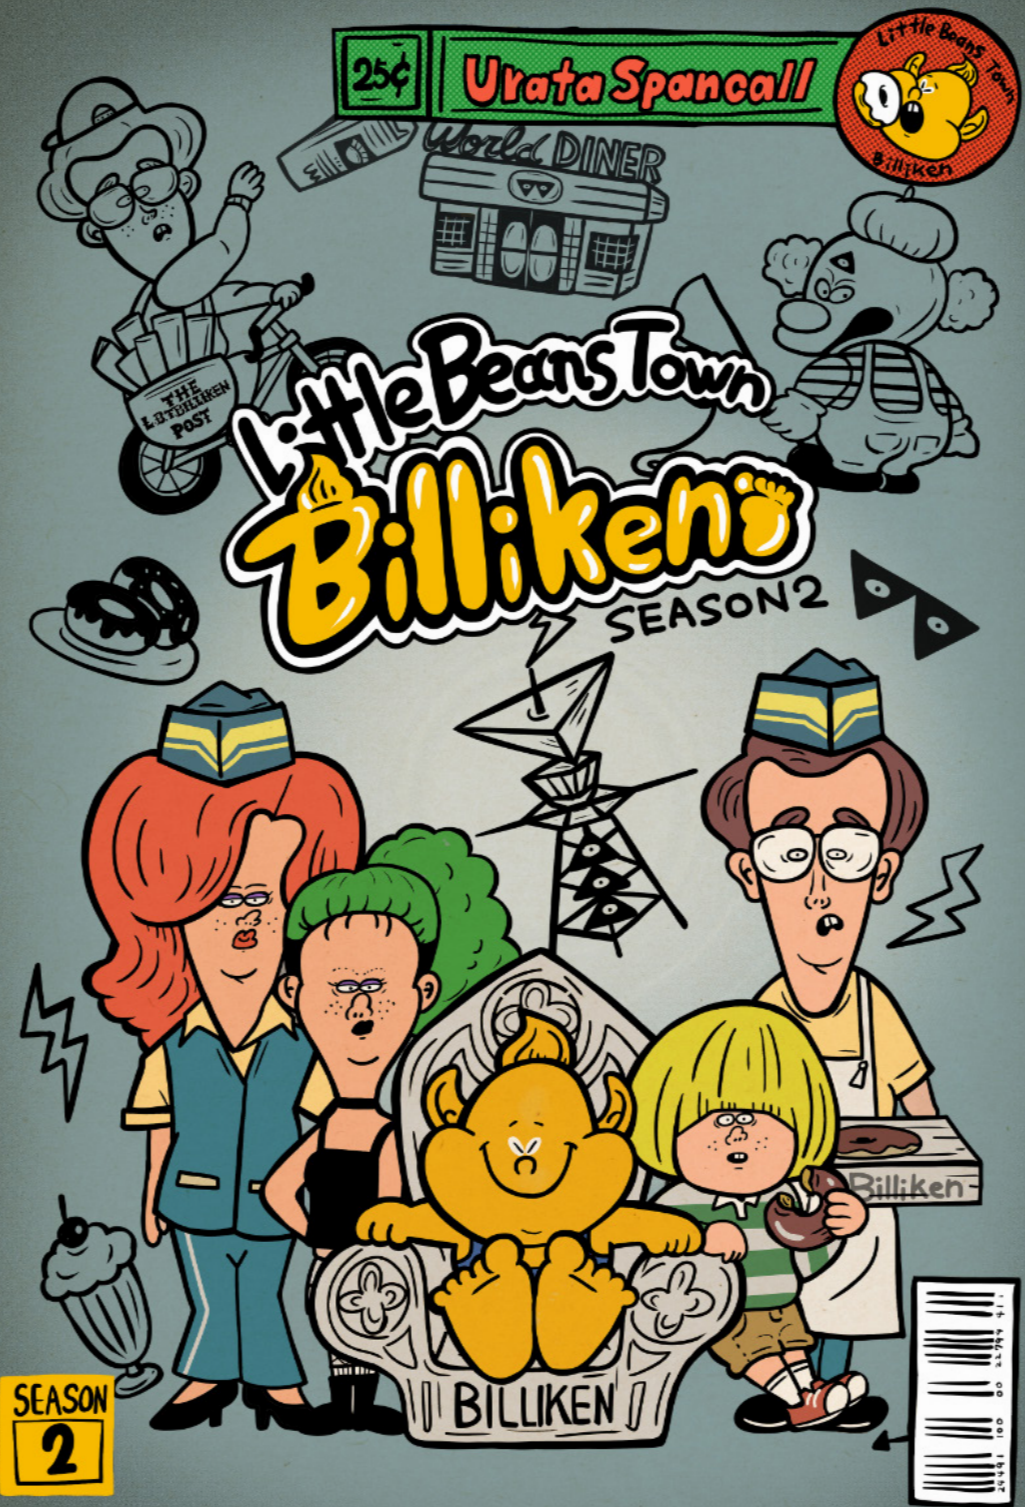

Bamboo Company

A fictional cereal brand that uses various emotions as its flavors. Its unique characters add a touch of color to everyday life. The concept for Bamboo Company was born from the experience of raising children.

It started with the idea of having a lucky charm that would gently encourage and give courage and security to my two daughters. We've infused our desire to support them, while cherishing their individual personalities, into each flavor.

Little Beans Town Billiken

Born in America and raised in Osaka, Osaka's iconic Billiken has come to LittleBeansTown!

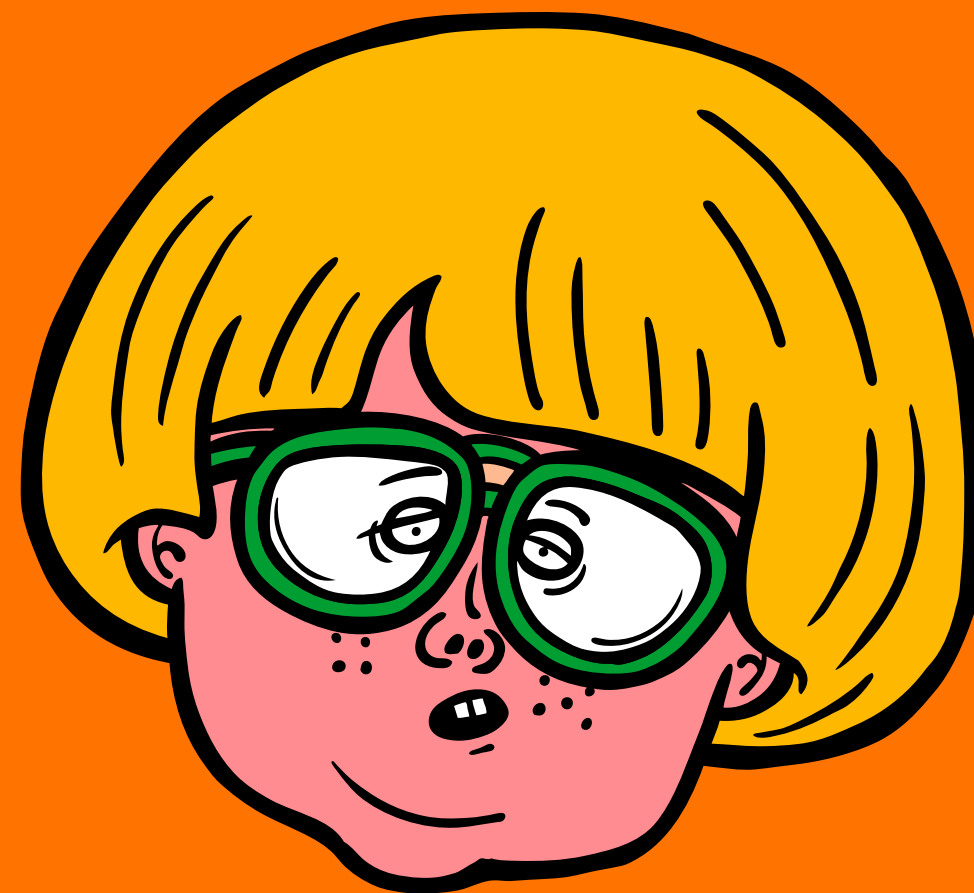

Billiken has somehow taken up residence in the town's donut shop and is now facing off against the mysterious organization "NEW WORLD."

The story depicts Billiken and the children's adventures in a world reminiscent of 80s cartoons.

A collaborative production with Tamura Komatsu Co., Ltd.
